AGNI AND DURGA

After years of wandering and friendship with Jesus we met Mary Magdalene, a sacred woman of the sisterhood of the women of Ephesus. In her meeting with Jesus their love sparked and had no beginning and no end.

Our friendship with her fell on old, fertile ground too, so we decided to share our lives. Years later, Sara, the daughter of Jesus and Mary Magdalene, married our son and entered a new covenant of love, light, and fire inviting everybody today to join.

THE DAWNING OF THE GOLDEN AGE

Prepare for the arrival of the Lord.

I am Mary Magdalene, Jesus' companion since the beginning of time.

I want you to know that I have not completely incarnated for the past 2000 years. I have developed aspects of myself mainly in the Heavens to prepare for the great mission, promised to us by Jesus a long time ago.

I also want you to know that I am not present on Earth in any form right now. Until recently, I stayed in unity with Jesus. We have never been apart in all that time. We form a stream of Christ's love combined in the Christ-Shakti and Christ-Shiva. Now, after eons, after an eternity, we have separated to retreat into our own Heavens and into our individual god-consciousness.

Jesus gave himself into the care of the Father in order to concentrate his light and contemplate his soul in preparation for his arrival.

I myself withdrew into the Great Mother who provides shelter for my soul Heaven. Here I prepare for my return to Earth.

This is my message to all of you, to whom I have dedicated this book: Mankind, prepare for the arrival of Jesus.

I, Mary Magdalene, will wait until he has preceded me and has gone through the sacred channel back to Earth to reappear to men in physical form.

Until then I will wait, abiding the time in my prayers, preparations, and rituals with which I infuse the worlds before coming back to Earth.

I am melded with my soul Heaven and preparing myself for the return to Earth.

I am Mary Magdalene, the eternal lover, whose heart belongs solely to the Lord.

Much has been written about me. Much of that was overwritten and much forgotten. I do not hold it against men that they have said so many things about me that derive only from their own perception of me.

I am not surprised that my true identity has been forgotten, as I have not completely incarnated since my time with Jesus.

Realize the truth today.

I want neither to be worshipped nor praised. It is not my nature to accept these streams of worship.

My only desire is to serve the Lord once again.

I am a female, loving, serving stream that flows toward Him with the eternal light to nurture Him with my love.

I would like you to know that none of what has been written about me over the past 2000 years comes even close to describing who I really am.

I have been denied and the memory of me has been distorted. My place at Jesus' side has been erased, my role in his life negated.

It never was and never will be my intention to reveal the secrets of my inner mysteries. My life with Jesus belongs only to my heart and to me. It served only the purposes of loving him as a man and at the same time loving those who are our brothers and sisters. These are the ones that were incarnated with us and who accompanied us and supported us in our great assignment that wanted to find a way between light and darkness. This was my mission at that time, as it was in later years while I walked with him and experienced the highest level of fulfillment of happiness and love.

All this, I would like to keep in my heart.

Jesus deliberately chose those who should proclaim his name and teachings. You know that he chose twelve disciples, his stars, who went into the world to spread his message, brought to Earth from his direct dialogue with God, our Father in Heaven. But there were many more beings that accompanied him. There were three women in his close circle; I was one of them, chosen by him to also be one of his apostles. The Essenes and the 108 guardians of the gates of Heaven also joined us at Jesus' side. In his wider circle, 2000 souls were incarnated at the time with Him. Each of them was entrusted with a task according to the individual quality of their soul, their origin, and their power.

I want the world to understand:

We were and always will be in the service of humanity, as we are always connected with the ones we love.

Though we shared a life together as man and woman and parents to our child, this mystery will be preserved within us.

Everything we do is a divine gift to the Earth and the people.

I want to be recognized as a servant of the Lord who gives herself completely. I seek to share everything I have with those who are thirsty and seeking and who have forgotten themselves. It is your decision which messages from which sources you want to listen to.

Your heart will show you the truth.

But if you want to know me, Mary Magdalene, you can only do so from heart to heart. This is how I want to be understood, neither revered nor adored, for I simply am.

I am Mary Magdalene.

Once chosen by Jesus as one of his female apostles.

That is why I speak to you today.

Know today: none of Jesus' apostles, male or female, ever wanted to be worshipped or seen as an independent being. Our intention was solely to be his voice – not his representative. He initiated us into his love, and we now convey this message of love to mankind.

This is how we saw ourselves and how we want to be recognized today.

I am Mary Magdalene.

Only when Jesus has incarnated again will I bring my soul to Earth. This is the promise from old times. Close to the throne of God, he concentrates his entire light to prepare himself for his return.

I promised him I would bring his message to Earth when the time is right. It will be spoken in both of our names.

I am here to support the Earth during its transformation.

At times I am close to Earth and perform my service and my work.

I turn to you because the Earth turned to me.

MESSAGE TO EARTH, MESSAGE TO MANKIND

Currently Earth is experiencing a monumental process of creation.

You see the world breaking apart right in front of your eyes. Your familiar structures already have been shaken.

Trust me; this is only the beginning of a great era.

I am speaking to you so you may understand what is shaking the Earth and its structures. The inherent cause is invisible to many of you.

The Earth is beginning to prepare herself for the Light of Christ. In her inner fire she has already developed a strong core of Christ, which, once completed, will let all creatures on Earth partake in this embodied love.

Dear Mankind: begin to understand that for the first time, Earth itself will bring forth the Light of Christ from its inner core. This is a very special moment in time. If you are willing to make contact with Mother Earth you will realize that she needs you. Mankind has inhabited Earth for a long time and has exploited and hurt her.

But now Mother Earth is calling for you. Understand she is going through a birthing process and needs you to help her through it. The more people who collaborate, the easier it will be for Earth. Like a pregnant mother, Earth has now begun her labor and mankind will consciously witness all phases of this delivery in full awareness of its importance. If you are able to harness the collective power that you can experience together with Earth in order to give birth to yourself through the Light of Christ, mankind will not need to endure so much pain and destruction. It can be reborn together with Earth within the Light of Christ.

This will not happen overnight – but the cycle already began in August of 1999 at the time of the solar eclipse.

Now the second cycle begins and I will prepare you for it, step by step. The more of you who understand it, the easier it will be.

Only the old, refusing to give birth to the new, must be destroyed.

Mankind is called upon to move ahead, to reconsider, and to change its orientation.

As you know, the Mayans announced the end of their calendar and therefore the end of the old world in the year 2012.

These and similar astronomical calculations and predictions have been echoed by others at different times.

What they don't take into consideration and what humanity always forgets is the real reason Jesus came to Earth before: to call on the Father in Heaven.

Jesus taught us to realize our connection to the Father who is full of grace, love and graciousness for His children.

The grace of God can only be achieved by turning to Him in devout prayers and with pure love.

If mankind does not turn to the Father, the destruction will be immense and devastating.

The more you turn to him, the more He can let His grace flow to you and your misgivings need not come true.

Mankind has come to a crossroads. What the future years will bring depends on your decision. It is a question of learning through destruction or through the grace of God. He is prepared to present this Earth with the gift of His miracles.

Remember, during the time of Atlantis you learned through destruction. You experienced the destruction of the Earth's creation right in front of your eyes. Ever since then you have walked a long path, separated into light and matter in order to heal this deep traumatic shock.

You must understand that everything that will follow depends entirely on your attitude towards life.

These things will happen no matter what.

After darkness' long reign, it is now time for Earth to experience a rebirth and man with her.

You don't have the slightest idea of how many beings from all Heavens are collaborating in order to create this process of initiation, renewal, and rebirth on this Earth. More beings than you know are already incarnated. Most of the truly initiated ones work in secret and are directly connected with the spiritual world. Many communication channels on Earth are now open. A defining sign of this time for you will be the necessity to make the decision which "prophets" to follow.

Long ago, during his journeys after his crucifixion, Jesus gave us many lessons and taught us to follow our own perceptions and our own hearts, and to listen to our own inner voice of God.

He guided us to the point where we ourselves had to stand up in order to decide according to our inner truth.

CONVERSATION WITH GOD AND REALIZATION OF THE LIGHT OF CHRIST

This is what I would like to pass on to mankind. Begin to feel the truth in your heart again. It won't be easy at first. You are not used to expanding your love to God anymore and receiving your answers from Him. Nor are you used to recognizing the truth between the veils of illusion. But if you sincerely and wholeheartedly try, you can be sure that God will hear you, and step by step He will advance toward you until the pure connection between you is restored.

Know that God never chose an authority to speak to Him in your name. For God Himself speaks to every creature. He speaks to me, He speaks to you, and He speaks to all.

How could mankind ever believe that God would separate Himself from some and give others the privilege of staying in contact with Him?

I beg mankind and every individual to explore and cultivate this dialogue with God again. This is the only way to endure the imminent crisis.

Know that many spiritual forces have gathered around the Earth to join forces. But also realize that these forces are of light as well as dark nature. God grants everyone the same opportunity. Mankind has to decide for itself which it will serve: God's will and His Throne, or those who promote willfulness, darkness, and the impulses of the ego that has separated itself from God.

Therefore between Heaven and Earth many creatures will try to have their voices heard for a longer period of time. Some will be light and some will be dark because the great council wants the people to realize for themselves where they belong.

Know that everything is God — neither light nor darkness is separated from Him. In darkness, however, it is always destruction that is born, while within light creation is born.

The Light of Christ is the only light in the universe that connects the two.

The Light of Christ finally wants to rise on Earth. It wants you to learn from the long times of wars, destruction, mutual hostility, exclusion, and curse that neither light nor darkness can prevail. Both possess within themselves powerful and inborn powers. However, one creates and gives birth while the other can only destroy. The Light of Christ connects and merges both at one table, so they can recognize that God is in both of them. Up until now mankind has only halfway understood that destruction has only caused pain and that creation and God, when united, communicate much more directly and harmoniously with the rhythms of life and death.

THE RHYTHM OF CREATION

Once you begin to understand the grand rhythm of the Great Mother, who withers, dies, and is reborn within herself in order to create, you will recognize the cycle that grants you the possibility of realizing a new cycle of time, understanding, and encounter with your self as well as Earth.

I will introduce you more deeply to the rhythms of the Great Mother, because it will be important that you entrust yourselves to these rhythms. You must learn to let go and give everything you have and are to creation in order to be reborn. You can arise in the light and be recognized in God's holy face. This is the rhythm between the Great Mother and Earth.

If this rhythm is not accepted, oscillations between the Great Mother and Earth will arise and structures on Earth and in Heaven will burst.

In this case the crisis must be experienced as a result of the inability to let go.

Like creation, ceasing is a process of eternal life, just like being born and the abundance of life. Everything comes and goes.

If humanity can finally understand this original rhythm, deep healing will enter your souls, for you would reconnect with the initiations of life, and a deep respect and reverence for creation would arise in you.

Many today are trapped in a world that you call pain and trauma. You cultivate pain because you mistakenly believe that you can only realize the depth of creation within the darkness of pain.

The depth is much more than you dare to hope. It is the safety, the initiation and the arrival in the primordial existence of trust.

Within the depth of darkness you understand power, guidance, life, and creation.

This darkness has nothing to do with the darkness, now formed into a disease pattern, that you know on Earth. The Earth is also trapped and has fallen ill to the same cancer, which the humans experience within their bodies.

Due to the long, uncontrolled run of free will of mankind on Earth and the long wars between light and darkness, the Great Mother has had to experience her cells adopt a corrupted growth.

The Earth cannot heal herself. She wants to experience healing together with mankind.

THE SIMULTANEITY OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF EARTH AND MAN

Earth was created for the people.

At the beginning of time, the process of creation for the people and the Earth was intended to be in synchronicity, in good times and in bad times.

The Earth grows with its people and the people grow with the Earth. This you must begin to understand.

I want to remind you of mankind's experiences in Atlantis, where everything you are experiencing today began.

PREPARE FOR THE RETURN OF JESUS

Now the time has come for the initial seeds, planted by Jesus 2000 years ago, to begin to flourish in the light of the rising age.

Know that during his former life Jesus tirelessly planted seeds into the earth. These were seeds of light, love, and the Light of Christ. I and many others who loved and respected each other accompanied him during that time.

For 2000 years these seeds had to wait, embedded, hidden, and veiled in the darkness of the earth until the day in August 1999 when the world experienced a zero-time during the solar eclipse. That's when the new time began. At that moment all seeds left by Jesus were activated and began to move within the earth.

Now, after this time of maturing, a new cycle begins, and I would like to tell you about it.

Know that now an exceptional time dawns for mankind, a time of decisions. Jesus and I were lovingly connected together in an eternal stream and have interwoven the Light of Christ with our male and female powers to prepare it for the Earth, this solar system, and the surrounding universes. We have also prepared the paths and networks together with many others who we call brothers and sisters in the unity of love and in the unity of the Light of Christ. A large number of them are already reincarnated on Earth and some of these are leading the way.

In recent years many of them have worked hard to raise their consciousness from within and let it advance toward the surface of their being. With all their strength they have lifted their light upward in preparation for the great time that has been promised to mankind.

Many of them have already paved the way on Earth.

In the face of the praise to the Lord and the sweat of the Earth, many of those who accompanied us then as well as now have taken the preparations upon themselves. They really live among you.

As they promised Jesus, they radiate their essence, their blessings, and their love to mankind. But there are also some beings who want to incarnate just now.

Beginning in December of 2009, a wave of special children will start to incarnate. They will enter the Earth through a golden stream of light, and this new generation will help you.

Along with others, Sarah, Jesus' and my daughter, will soon incarnate among you. She already dwells, waiting to be born, within a loving mother who does not know of her good fortune yet. I have entrusted my beloved child to her, since it was Sarah's desire to lead the way. She is part of the golden light wave of children who return to Earth when the golden age may reappear in its entire splendor.

You should welcome these children. You should recognize and encourage them, since they represent a wonderful stream of grace for the Earth and the people of the world.

From now on, there will be many waves of preparation. The gates of grace have been opened upon you. At the same time you will experience the greatest decision that has been presented to man for ages.

Before I completely retreat to my soul Heaven, I will give you the following messages Jesus' has asked me to convey.

THE FAILURE OF THE REIGN OF DARKNESS

Jesus wants to let mankind know what is happening so they can understand and better live through the upcoming times. You must know that the time of destruction, which solidifies constantly in your world, is only a sign of illusion.

In the simultaneity of grace, parallel, coexisting worlds are developing.

Mankind faces a decision.

Know that it is God's will that energies of highly developed Masters of light will enter the Earth's sphere to fulfill His will under His throne.

Energies from different gods, along with those of other spiritual beings such as Jesus and me, streamed to Earth and were distributed to those who opened their hearts to our message.

At the same time, it is God's will that the rulers of darkness may claim the same rights for themselves – because before God's love everyone is the same.

God makes no distinction among His children, no matter whether they are within the light or live in the darkness.

They all are embodiments of His love.

Nevertheless, there is a measure of decision that can only be understood by humans through the omnipresence of the Light of Christ and the primordial love of God.

You have now seen a long era of the Kali-Yuga, where darkness was allowed to rule the world. Before that time there was the reign of the light. God wants both and both are God's children.

The reign of the light failed with the downfall of Atlantis. Now you can witness the failure of the reign of the darkness.

Neither in their time succeeded in achieving the will of God and elevating the welfare of all beings.

A long time ago God released the plans for the self-chosen mission of all beings, through which they could realize themselves.

One group chose the reign of the light; the other chose the darkness. Neither achieved the aims of God's realm, His will and the reign of His throne to bring fulfillment to all the people on Earth.

But now the time has come.

Mankind, be aware of how much love flows from God's heart to you. Now comes a time like never before on Earth.

The throne of God wants to manifest on Earth.

At this moment, God gives each of His creatures permission to enter His kingdom and accept the rule of His realm under His throne.

OUR DECISION IS NEEDED

Before I withdraw into my Heaven, I wish to give mankind an understanding of the three big waves that will come toward you within the next few years.

The first wave began in 2009 on August 24th. The second wave will commence on December 21st of 2010 and the third will start on February 3rd of 2012.

Each of these waves has its own meaning and its own dedication.

Each of these waves will bring merciful light to Earth as well as destruction.

The people must decide whether to utilize the time they have in order to finally leave the old and unnecessary behind.

The history of Atlantis was sealed by Jesus 2000 years ago. What you experience right now are only the offshoots of the traces of that time.

The old fate of humanity now begins to dissolve.

Nevertheless it will be each individual's task to retreat into himself and to clean up his own world and to repent if he has not already done so.

Those who are already serving the light will once again receive the task to collect and integrate the shadows they have thrown onto Earth during their incarnations, and to finally arrive on Earth again. Those serving the light and feeling like the embodiment of light are missing the shadow that allows their connection with the Earth. The light forces of the mighty are still cut off from the forces of the Earth and the Mother.

Those who are still living in the dark and in unconsciousness are given the task to finally turn to the light so that they might remember and, after a long night of darkness, leave their dark hole and walk into the open, where bright sunlight awaits them. The Light of God wants to warm them again, relieve the pain of their souls until they find their way home.

They will have the task to relive their own pain, because their pain will carry them home. If someone has lived in the darkness for a long time, the sun and the light are painful at first.

For those who deliberately served the darkness and the dark princes, the gates to a new world are open if they want to leave their estrangement from God behind. Their task will be to relearn. The laws of God's throne which are concentrated in the mantra "Om Namah Shivaya" will bind all beings to the will of God through His Love.

Those who have despised or denied the will of the Lord must undergo a learning phase. They will experience how the presence of the Lord will break their own ego until they can return to that reality which is solely created by the "Om Namah Shivaya."

With each of these three waves that I describe to you, the energies on Earth will concentrate.

The margin for making your decision to accept your tasks is getting narrower. It will be easier for you if you accept your tasks and your realizations and work on yourself so you can bit by bit integrate the incoming light, for everything serves your preparation to walk up to the throne of the Lord once again.

THE AWAKENING OF THE LIGHT OF CHRIST IN THE EARTH WITH THE FIRST WAVE

Prepare for the return of Jesus.

The messiah will come to the Earth unrecognized.

You will not even notice it.

Only those who are truly connected with the spiritual world will notice the thousands of fires of love that will accompany him to Earth and announce his arrival.

But this will only happen when the time is right.

Jesus will come as a pioneer, as a destroyer of your structures. He will break open the new time with a powerful and divine force.

You have created a false picture of Jesus. Those in power have buried him under their own thoughts.

Love – yes, that is what he is.

At the same time he is the embodiment of the divine will, which will break what is not meant to last.

Silently he will arrive on Earth.

Those who have not yet conquered their own heart and do not hear God's voice within will face a serious challenge. Thousands of prophets will appear on the horizon at the same time. This is a manifestation of polarity.

Jesus will quietly dwell among you, hidden and unrecognized by many. And those who are false prophets will become loud. It will be up to each of you to hear the gentle, quiet, barely audible voice of God that lies far away from the noise of the world, within you. Only those to whom He shows Himself will recognize him.

For mankind a daunting task lays ahead.

With his arrival, whether acknowledged or not, his presence will release endless waves of love. You will be able to feel these waves. You can prepare yourself by reflecting your innermost being constantly and every moment to find God and Jesus there.

Everything that wants to obstruct the waves of love will not be able to hold its ground. The old must die in order to give birth to the new.

Humanity is collectively proceeding towards a chokepoint of evolution, which must be overcome.

No one will be spared.

Those who are willing to purify their souls, to repent and show insight and at the same time remember that God is the Father of all life will pave the new path. Search for those who are already incarnated and standing by to help you through these times.

Be gentle and judicious. Listen to your heart and you will find those who can help you initiate your transformation, for there is no other way.

Whatever opposes the transformation will be destroyed, either through emerging catastrophes that will occur when the Earth has no other outlet anymore and will express itself through them or through the collapse of all your known values and ideologies.

They will die to make room for Love.

Be aware that a parallel world of beings, coming to hold the world, is beginning to form around you.

Wherever the Earth bursts open, she opens herself to new visions and takes them in, only to give birth to them again in the near future.

From now on the world will change. For a long time she has granted mankind its free will. The Earth never set up terms or conditions, but has allowed you to make your experiences on her, even letting you destroy, disrespect, and exploit parts of her being.

The Earth will no longer take in or give birth to anything that is not ordained and blessed by God. This is not her decision but the decision of the Great Mother, whom the Earth remains in constant contact with.

Move now!

Be willing to open up yourselves, expand your channel of Love and volunteer your Self as a vessel of Love.

Search for the path to the Lord.

It is not difficult for God is always there.

He is omnipresent. You only must be aware of Him.

You do not notice him in the noisy world, in the sounds or the distractions. You will notice Him only in the silence and in accordance with yourself.

Find the way back to the center and seek out those who can help you with this.

Only those who are anchored within themselves and in God will overcome the upcoming harsh winds and storms that will blow over the Earth. You will not only encounter them on the outside through storms and destruction; on the inside they will be even more evident.

Now about your fear: I want you to understand that fear is only a product of one's own mind. Fear pierces and weakens you. This will destroy your aura and your self. Try to let go of the fear and begin to trust. Constantly repeat God's name, regardless of your faith or religious affiliation.

God hears and understands every language.

During the first wave you will live in a phase of simultaneity: you will experience the arrival of the highest grace on Earth and at the same time you will experience the narrowest gate that mankind ever had to pass through.

Both worlds will exist simultaneously and it is your choice whether you apply yourself in fear to one or devote yourself to the other, willing to change your ways.

Millions of people pray daily for the arrival of Jesus on this Earth – and trust me, Jesus hears every single one of them. Every voice reaches his heart.

He knows how much the people and the Earth miss him. He has promised to return when mankind has learned to love out of its own desire.

Know that Earth herself ignites the Light of Christ for her own being from within her fire core. It will expand from the inside of the Earth through all her layers. There will be no obstacle for this Light of Christ, for it is time for it to be born.

Together the Earth and mankind are on their way to immerse themselves into the Light of Christ in order to synchronously prepare for the arrival of the messiah.

In the near future you will experience many phenomena that are unfamiliar to you.

When the Light of Christ continues to expand, your electronic devices and timepieces might not function in the accustomed manner. Time leaps and time gaps will occur.

Face these many time phenomena by feeling your own power and centeredness in your center, your navel chakra, your hara. That is where your eternal time is kept, unaffected by polar time.

Many familiar structures will be unsettled and no longer available to you.

See the good in everything, because the Earth is preparing for a dimensional leap.

This does not mean that you will leave the Earth, but you will finally recognize the divine light within your body, which is a sacred vessel

Arrive in the love on Earth and from there rediscover yourselves.

Jesus has asked me to tell you that his Light of Christ ubiquitously flows to all those who are willing to love – to all those who are ready to let love become their life's passion, who will burn, live, and die for love, for eternal love, for the deepest and truest love, which is and will always be the creation of all that is.

Know that you are protected. Turn to him who listens to each of you in every moment of his existence.

THE UNIFICATION OF SHIVA AND SHAKTI THROUGHOUT THE SECOND WAVE

For a long time you have lived in polar times. You are familiar with the prevalence of masculine power, which loses its balance without feminine compensation. It rules without rhythm and ignores the laws of nature.

When the reign of masculinity is too linear in the world, the balance is missing a necessary and essential part.

You also know, from a long time ago, that the unilateral domination of feminine power unbalanced by masculinity becomes a cruel reign because she will inwardly turn dark being distanced from the creative impulses of the male principle.

But all this is over.

You shall now understand that only the balance between male and female, between creator and creation, man and woman, will be able to restore the balance between the worlds.

As an initial preparation you will encounter an enhancement of feminine forces that have existed disconnected from Earth for too long. Women will notice this particularly. Creation and the Great Mother are sending new impulses to Earth. This will not only affect women, because everyone carries a male and a female part within himself. Your inner harmonization will bring you outer balance.

During this time many issues of male and female, of creator and creation will rise again. They want to be recognized from many times and they want to be released.

In their origin creator and creation are one.

God's throne and the Great Mother necessitate each other.

Without the creator there would be no creation, but without the womb of creation, the creator would not be able to express himself.

None of these forces can exist without the other.

Mankind will experience a major upheaval during this time, since the change of the balance at first strengthens the imbalances.

God's plan and the Great Mother's plan both seek to restore the balance within creation, and between the Earth and the divine throne.

Endless streams of creation will enter into and onto the Earth during this time. Mankind can support this by creating places of power through their love, sites dedicated to these rays of creation. Honor these places and incorporate them into your rituals.

By doing so you invite these creational impulses into your life, and they will not be drawn to unprepared and lifeless places.

At the same time you will also experience how destructive the initial creative force of the Great Mother can be when she finds places that do not praise her.

The scope for the people will diminish even more through the concentration of polarity, which is striving for resolution.

As always, the transitional processes are the most difficult.

You would do yourself a great service by avoiding falling from one extreme into the other during this time.

Remain centered within the “Om Namah Shivaya” and do not let yourselves be led astray.

At the same time a rising energy will awaken, in which every being with an open heart, spirit, and body will be able to realize its destination and its origin.

If you are not able to reach the core that God has created within you, then reach out for help. Be wise with your choice. There are beings that can recognize you. Ask for their help. Within simultaneity every person’s destiny goes into effect.

If you live outside of your destiny, you may experience strong upheavals, diseases, or other phenomena in your life.

If you are willing to let your purpose awaken within you, you will enter a new path that emerges from within.

Polarity, which pulls you to the left or right, towards good or bad, will not impress you anymore. Deep inside you will know what there is to do and this will carry you through these times.

Maybe you do not remember: every being is born with a purpose. Destiny means only that the fortune bestowed onto you by God at the time of your birth wants to fulfill itself.

Turn to your personal destiny. Only those who have arrived within themselves can participate in the large network that is forming on Earth.

It will not be easy for you during the second wave. Things will seem to be drifting apart even farther than they have ever done. The parties will split and the opinions of men too.

Those who are willing to accept their light and their divine origin will walk through the times of disasters unaffected only because they are centered between Heaven and Earth.

The union of Shiva and Shakti will be a great gift for mankind. At this moment a dignified and long desired world plan of the universes will be fulfilled. These moments are rare and have happened only twice in the history of creation.

The following happens in this unification: all gifts of creation are released at the same moment — a big birthday for the universe.

The first time it happened during the creation of the worlds, and the second time it happened at a wedding in Atlantis, where this moment merged between Heaven, Earth, and the universes.

THE TIME OF MIRACLES

During the third wave this power will resurface.

Those who are on their way and are prepared will receive more gifts than they can imagine.

It will be the era of miracles where the unexpected will suddenly be fulfilled for mankind.

Accept these gifts of life without judging, and you will acknowledge that you are children of the divine realm.

The era of miracles is approaching. It is up to you how deeply you will get involved in uniting the male and female elements within you.

During this time the sacred couples will find each other again, for these holy couples will form the future. Only where male and female exist in respect and complete recognition of each other can the future have a foundation.

God also has a spouse, creation herself.

At the same time the creational patterns of the divine throne will lay themselves on the Earth in the form of perfect mandalas. These open up new possibilities, perspectives which go far beyond what you can imagine.

New technologies, inventions, and access to knowledge will become available for the Earth, and you will need those to face the future.

The future will challenge you; you will only survive through divinity and the development of your own divinity and no longer through the limitations of being human.

Stop worshipping material things, for they will decay like the dust on Earth. Apply yourself to your inner self where God dwells within you. Let this core weave through your cells piece by piece, until you become the enlightened being again, which realizes God in every other being.

There are only divine creatures in God's kingdom. They depend on each other and serve each other and together they will bring forth creation – and this will be the sign by which you will recognize this wave.

New creational patterns will form into new networks and new connections between people, some who have long been lost to each other. Finally they can reconnect this network on Earth again.

At the same time those not ready to serve will experience a massive fall.

Jesus has a message for you for this period.

Know that it is not God's wish for any creature on Earth to experience disaster or misfortune. But if you don't enter the light of love and face the reign of God, then you do not accept the love in your heart, which is inherent in you and inspires you.

If you prefer to live in the shadow of your own existence and do not want to enter into the rays of light from God's hand, you will have difficulty living through these times unharmed.

God lets every being know that for ages He has been waiting for each of you. The language of God will come so close that it is unmistakable if you open the door for Him.

My love and my grace are with you always and forever.

Prepare the ground for God inside yourselves and you can return home within yourselves and you will have arrived at home – where you will meet the Lord face to face. For this is the inheritance of your soul.

Om Namah Shivaya

THE THIRD WAVE — ENLIGHTENMENT AND INITIATION

I would like to tell you now about the third wave, the most precious of all — the wave of enlightenment and initiation.

The reign of Agni begins.

With this wave the prophecy begins, the one the people once knew but have forgotten over the eons that you have wandered in oblivion.

Ancient scriptures foretold the appearance of Agni on the horizon in the Age of Aquarius. He will proclaim the reign of the light. Under his reign the beings will be elevated, the oppressed will be liberated, and the allegedly powerful will be dethroned.

Agni does not do this to humiliate anyone. His essence is solely uplifting. He will lift you up to the place that God has chosen for you.

During this time the Throne of God will be visible on Earth and the sign of Agni will appear on the horizon.

A call will ring through all the worlds – the call to wake up.

The beginning of the new era, which you call the Age of Aquarius or The Golden Age, will appear on the horizon for you. It will be announced by so much fire that it cannot be overlooked by anyone.

A large wave of light will pass over the Earth in many pulses, and a wave of destruction will rise again - destruction of everything resisting this wave of love, light, and divine reign.

Those who want to be part of it have to seize their own place. Accept help finding this place by contacting Agni within yourself. You will find it easy to reach him, since he will be omnipresent during this time

Fire will appear everywhere.

The fire announces the rebirth and the new creation.

The Earth will burn. She herself will bow before Agni to pay homage to his arrival.

At the same time the gates of Shambala will open and will become ubiquitous on Earth. This is the sign that the reign of the light is no longer withdrawn, but participates in the Earth and its affairs.

All of a sudden new systems for the Earth will develop, ones you would have never expected, perhaps even in governments, forms of sovereignty that are ordained to the light.

Then there will be the final negotiations between the Lords of the light and the Lords of the darkness to finally make peace.

Everyone has his place in God's kingdom. They must not neutralize each other but must support each other.

You have seen the battle between light and darkness on Earth as a war for a long time.

Also world politics will have to adapt to these vibrational guidelines and create peace.

The understanding of one another will be advanced, yet individuals may still believe in the leadership that is not derived from the compromise of many opinions but emerges solely from the divine plan.

Governments that decide to accept the offered help in order to follow the divine guidance will survive; otherwise your system will disintegrate before your eyes.

The blind will be under the impression that God is punishing them.

The seeing will realize that God is fulfilling His promise given a long time ago, the promise to help His family to reach the reign of light. During this time the reign of light is dawning under the leadership of God's throne.

Forget all your prophecies. Up until now none has ever achieved the level of understanding at which the time after 2012 could be described in their prediction, because all of them have been Earthbound and limited.

Also all revelations ultimately only described the decline of the secular power.

Deep inside, the human race should now understand that God never was and never will be a punisher, a destroyer, but that which is old and outdated destroys itself.

The reign of Agni will bring peace to the world.

Great lights of peace will flood the Earth from all worlds. The enlightened universes will guide their streams of peace constantly towards Earth, and they will help the beings.

The gates between the dimensions will again become permeable, and communication with other worlds and with Heaven will overcome the fog of oblivion. For those who deny God, this will be a time of terror.

For those who love God, this will be the time they have always missed and have longed for.

This time will bring forth new creation with tremendous speed, such as you have never seen before.

Time will accelerate even more. You will have to pay attention to your bodies, because they will adapt to new vibrational waves.

This is why a new medicine will develop which is not aimed at diseases, but will help humans to lighten their bodies and become a vessel of love, so they can find their way.

Know that Agni is benevolent.

He loves.

He is the embodied word of God and the expression of His throne on Earth.

In this time people will have more and more visions of God's throne. God will not stop touching His creatures in their dreams again and again to reach everyone who is willing to open his heart.

This period will be the hardest for you since shadows can no longer survive. The light on Earth will strive for concentration and at the same time for the union with the Light of Christ.

There will be no more room for shadows.

Golden waves will spread over the Earth and proclaim the message of peace.

Mankind can now prepare by accepting the holy fire again. Fire is the creation from which everything once was born, even the Earth. Only if you do not evade the fire will you be able to face the fire.

Otherwise Earth must produce the fire that creates the balance between her and Agni in order to give birth to the new creation.

However, this she must only do if the people do not acknowledge the fire. You can find the fire in your heart. It is the expression of your love. It is the burning of God's desire in your heart.

Now again a wave of children will come to Earth, a wave of special children, whom you can only accept if you acknowledge them for who they are. But this knowledge cannot yet be introduced. Nevertheless, I would like to advise you to welcome these children, for they carry knowledge about the healing of the Earth and the new creation, which you have long forgotten. They carry these tools within themselves. The light will be so bright that at times it will be unbearable.

But fortune in you will begin to blossom again.

You will find your way home.

Those who are searching will recognize their spiritual families again and will finally be able to retrieve what they have been missing for a long time.

The boundaries of separation will dissolve and many things you can't even fathom will appear in a new light. This will be the time when the plan is implemented and God's will allows me to return to Earth and to you: me, Mary Magdalene, not to be worshipped in any way, who through Jesus' assignment is his apostle, his voice, and his mediator.

During that time you will learn to understand that the true avatars living amongst you cannot be understood by listening to words in polarity. But there will be mediators helping you to understand the language until you return to unity.

I too praise Agni before the announcement of his presence and bow before him. Because you, Agni, will even exalt me in the same way you exalt every being. Be it gods who dwell among men, be it Buddhas who forgot about themselves, be it angels or star families, all may rise in the face of Agni.

Know that everyone who ever took part in the writing of history on Earth will be incarnated in this time. Every creature that has ever left traces on Earth is incarnated now or will be by then because they all want to collaborate in designing this new era with the help of their abilities, qualities, potentials, and their innate powers. Collaborate in shaping creation. This will be the great call to mankind to leave powerlessness behind and to contribute the gifts of creation for the benefit of all beings.

The opportunity to do so will be greater than ever.

AGNI'S MESSAGE

Here and now Agni himself will convey a message to you.

Take these words and begin to realize that Jesus and Agni and other avatars will become apparent as you have never experienced before.

“Dear cohabitants on Earth!

We are facing new global challenges that demand our full attention, respect, and love for the planet, our selves, and our origin.

It is God’s wish for His word to be manifest on Earth and for it and His throne to become visible to all His children. To experience and accompany this is the blessing of our time, and we can open our hearts toward it now.

It is the fulfillment of man’s dream, of his very own innate desire to return home. At the same time it is the redemption of a promise given to us by God when we entered creation.

It is the light that has not left us through the millennia of darkness and that has always kept our faith in a new sunrise alive in our core.

The unification of polarity in the grace of God on Earth is the physical resurrection of our souls

Let us pray together, love and work to make this dream come true.

Don’t be afraid, but sing your hearts’ song.

Om Namah Shivaya.”

AGNI

You will be given the chance to experience God as no longer separate from you but as in unity with you. Everything is intertwined. The Earth will develop a new awareness for the great whole. The awareness of separate countries and cultures will dissolve or will have to dissolve.

People are encouraged to recognize that everyone should work together – in the large and the small – in small or global projects and at all times the welfare of all should be considered.

Should you who you are reading this today have previously been unwilling to serve for everyone's benefit, you now have the time to reconsider and take the chance to correct that. The grace that is arising deletes all sins and all mistakes of the past much faster than you can imagine. It only takes your devotion to withdraw from the outdated system of existence of your soul and to enter the new radiance of your true self.

New teachings come to Earth and for the first time after a long wait you will understand again God's true laws. God's law wants to be alive again on Earth in form of the Dharma.

THE FAREWELL AND THE PROMISE OF A REUNION

I am Mary Magdalene, and I have fulfilled my task in my promise to Jesus to take my place between Heaven and Earth as the ambassador between the worlds, to be the expression of his language and his love, and to act as a mediator of his words. I pray to God that my words may be understood. They are not a threat, but they are intended to make mankind aware of the great chance for an enormous revision.

God is willing to forget the past as soon as you turn to Him.

I, Mary Magdalene, send my love to you and want you to know that Jesus' love will be with you always. The love is present for those who love.

I would like to say good-bye to Earth and to my place between Heaven and Earth that I have revisited one last time.

I will only be in contact with a few from now on. These few will be asked to work together with me on certain tasks.

I will appear to certain people in distinct visions and will propose cooperation. The cooperation of the spiritual world and the Earth's inhabitants will be necessary in these troubled times.

More and more you will find me withdrawn into my soul Heaven, which is unattainable for you.

For each being's Heaven belongs only to itself and God.

In a certain way it is a farewell, but at the same time it is a welcome to humanity. I retreat only to renew myself and to give myself again to Earth when the time comes.

I love you, just as Jesus loved you. For you are all my brothers and sisters.

I pray that I will meet each and every one of you again in God's kingdom when the Lord arrives.

Om Namah Shivaya
